Seven, of the Constitution—Yes.

Application of State railroad bond

sinking fund, for the extinguishment

of the Minnesota State railroad bonds—No.

GRAND

REPUBLICAN RALLY!!

Saturday Evening, Nov. 2

AT

TAYLORS FALLS.

SENATOR RAMSEY,

WITH

HON. JARED BENSON,

And others, will be present and address

the meeting.

TURN OUT!!

The next Rally is at the Ballot-Box.

The manner of voting on the Amendment.

The suffrage amendment should be printed or written on the general ticket,

and should read as follows:

Amendment to section one (1), article

seven (7), of the Constitution—YES.

The law does not require the printing of the suffrage amendment on the general ticket, but it permits one amendment to be so printed, and the Republican and Democratic Central Committees

have both advised that this be the one

how to vote on this bond proposition.

The bond proposition is not a Constitutional amendment, but a law submitted by authority of the Constitution to the people, and the provision of law that each amendment shall be voted upon separately, does not therefore make it necessary that this proposition should be printed on a separate ballot. It may consequently be printed on the general

ticket, after the suffrage amendment

has been printed.

Application of the State Railroad

Bond Sinking Fund for the extin-guishment of the Minnesota State Railroad Bond.—No

How to vote on the BANK TAXATION

AMENDMENT.

The law specifically requires that this amendment should be voted on sepaately. It must therefore, be printed on a separate ballot, as follows:

Amendment of section four article

nine of the Constitution.

We are not quite clear as to the nature and effect of this amendment, but rather think it ought to be voted down,

HOW TO VOTE ON ALL OF THESE PROPO-

SITIONS.

Vote them altogether—the suffrage

Amendment and Bond proposition printed on the general ticket,—and the Bank

taxation Amendment on a separate ballot, folded inside of the general ticket. All should then be deposited in one ballot

box.

MINNESOTA.—The Springfield (Mass.)

Republican closes an excellent article on our State with the following very truthful paragraph:

"It is the best wheat State in the Union; it is one of the best wool growing and stock raising States; Minnesota possesses one of the most beautiful healthful

and invigorating climates in the world;

the State has a larger area of fertile soil ready for the plow than any other; the land is better drained and watered than any of the Northwestern States; it is the best wooded State in the Northwest; and

lastly it possesses more magnificent, effective and available water power than almost any other State in the entire Union.

This will do. We advise persons about emigrating to the West to take a through train to Minnesota.

MILWAUKEE TO MINNEAPOLIS.—Yesterday, for the first time, the iron horse

and thundering train were able to travel

without interruption, from Milwaukee to Minneapolis. The Milwaukee and St.

Paul road now reaches from Milwaukee to St. Paul, and beyond. Passengers can leave this city by the Prairie du

Chien branch of the M. and St. P. Railway and not leave their car until they have been ferried over the Father of Water, waded up through the bluffy bul-

works of Lake Koshong through the rolling prairie of that State, rattled over the fruitful fields of Minnesota and halted

within eight and sound of the roaring rapids of St. Anthony.—Milwaukee Sen-

inel.

INTENTIONAL DUPLICATE EXPOSURE

Local and Miscellaneous.

SATURDAY, November 2, 1887.

St. Anthony and Minneapolis are to be connected with a horse railroad.

This interest on 5-20 bonds, payable annually, falls due November 1st.

Advertisements claim the most of our space in to-day's paper.

A court of chaps from St. Paul, spotted democratic doctrine, at the School House, on Tuesday evening, to a handful of hearers.

On Tuesday we had a Democratic meeting and the first snow storm of the season. They both melted away into nothingness immediately after their appearance.

We call special attention to the advertisement of the Hardware Store of L. E. Torinus, Stillwater, Minn. Mr. T. has about completed a fine, three-story, stone building, on Main St., for his store, and is constantly receiving large accessions to his stock.

Mr. Bartow, a blind man and an old resident of Taylors Falls, formerly the owner of the present town site, gave a magic lantern exhibition at this place on Monday evening.

Dr. Buchanan, Dentist from St. Paul, who spent a portion of the summer here, is again in town and can be found at his rooms at the Chicago House, during the coming week. Those wishing dental work done should call promptly.

We notice that Sam. Winslow of Centre City, has received a goodly stock of Groceries and provisions.

The examination of Geo. L. Van Soelen, charged with the murder of Dr. Harcourt, was concluded on Tuesday, by the decision of Judge Lambert that he be committed to the common jail, to await the meeting and action of the Grand Jury.

Our corps of local and editorialists are badly demoralized this week, aside from the pressure of advertisements.

New Firm—Messrs. Wyckoff & Whitling have entered into a co-partnership, for the purpose of carrying on a general mercantile business. They have removed their stock into the store occupied until recently by S. Humphrey & Co.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Lodge of Good Templars at this place on the death of Miss Catherine Comer, and a copy handed us for publication:

Whereas, it hath pleased Him "Who doeth all things well," to remove from our number, one whose many virtues had endeared her to all our hearts,

Resolved, that while we deeply mourn her loss, we will ever sorely cherish her memory, emulate her purity and goodness of character and follow her bright example until we clasp glad hands in the Land where Faith is changed to sight, Hope to sweet fruition and our weak Charity will be lost in the sea of Eternal Love.

Resolved, that we do as a Lodge, cordially tender to the bereaved family of our late beloved sister, our deepest and most sincere sympathy, in this their great affliction, while we commend them to the only true source of strength and comfort.

Oct. 30, 1887.

The new hotel at Hudson has been named the "Chapin Hall House." The name is an excellent and appropriate one.

A Card.

We desire through the Reporter to return our hearty thanks to our friends for their very great kindness and sympathy to us in our affliction.

WILLIAM COMER, ELIZABETH COMER, Taylors Falls, Minn., October 28th 1887.

The Taylor's Falls Reporter.

CHAS. W. FOLSON, Editor & Publisher.

Terms—Two Dollars a Year.

For Local News See Fourth Page.

We have received sufficiently complete election returns to make up a comfortable dish of "bitter-sweet." Minnesota is all O. K. The least estimate placed on the Republican majority is 5,000.

The Suffrage Amendment is carried beyond a peradventure.

The Railroad Bond Proposition and the Bank Tax Amendment are undoubtedly overwhelmingly defeated.

New York robes herself in disgrace, with a "dismalstratic" majority of, say 40,000.

Maryland, ditto, with perhaps 25,000.

New Jersey, ditto, claiming 19,000.

The issue in Kansas is doubtful, but it is probable that it will go Republican by a small majority.

The Democrats concede a Republican majority of 4,000 in Wisconsin.

VOLUME NINE OF THE REPORTER.—

With this number of the Reporter we begin another volume. All we have say, is that fortune favors our readers, inasmuch as we are too much crowded for space to dilate on the many changes for better and worse that have been made during our brief newspaper career.

It is with a feeling of satisfaction that we look over our well-filled, and, paying, advertising columns and constantly increasing subscription list. But one thing is now lacking to make the Reporter complete, as a journal to represent Chicago county—a more live home interest. And this we hope soon to have.

We go to press to-day with only partial election returns from the county.—

The vote on the County Seat Question, however, we give in full. Also, the assurance that Chicago County has nobly sustained her reputation, as the polls, by a full Republican majority. Next week we shall endeavor to give the vote of every town in the county in full.

The Steamers Cutter, Champion, and Pioneer are now running regularly to this place. The last trip up, the Cutter landed here 35 tons miscellaneous freight, 100 hundred barrels of apples, 100 bbls molasses and pork, 145 bbls corn, and 10 tons of feed, 40 bbls flour.

Yesterday the Champion landed 75 bbls flour, 12 bbls pork, and several tons miscellaneous freight.

The Pioneer was loaded with grain and provisions for the pinneries.

Our Chicago Letter.

A Delit Wash: Mr. Sumner's Letters; Opera

And Amusement; Disappointed Immigrants;

Buildings and Improvements; A Brutal Ration and its True Antidote; "The Monitor."

Chicago, Oct. 26, 1867.

Chicago has been, for the last week or two, particularly and peculiarly dull.

There has not been a crime of any importance committed. There have been no outrageous swindles, and there has been nothing calculated to startle the community. People, when reading about Chicago expect to hear of something outrageous. It is supposed to be able to furnish sensations for all the cities in the United States. It does furnish many, and gets itself a bad name

by doing so. Still it is interesting for any one to know what Chicago is, and no one can visit the great city without being impressed in some way with an idea of its greatness.

There has been very little doing here

during the week, but very much is antiipated. Charles Sumner is going to deliver a lecture—a lecture which is familiar to most American readers—on the question of whether we are or are not a nation. Every one knows what

Mr. Sumner will say about that. He will speak, and he will have a large audience, and his easy flowing sentences,

his perfect diction, his earnest and philosophic views about matters both past and present, will be listened to attentively.

If any thing will in any way tend to detract from the value of the discourse

it will be the fact that it has been delivered before, and so often that almost every one knows already all that is in it.

Still, every one will go to hear Sumner,

and parodying Sterne, they will be apt

to say, "Though thousands in this age have drank of thee, thou art not the least pleasant on that account."

Chicago can boast of the best Opera

House that is yet known to this country.

This Opera House was raffled off some time since and came again by natural sequences into the hands of its original proprietor. Once or twice we have had good opera seasons since. Now we are to have first class opera. Max Stra-kosch has come and means to open with one of the finest troupes that has ever appeared here. The magnificent Morconi is wanting, so we must accept in her place the not so acceptable Adelaide

Phillips, a good contralto who is, however, but nothing to the glorious creature

that used to shine in the same role.

When Moreni was here about three years ago, she was persecuted by the attentions of available and unavailable

persons of opposite sex. It is devoutly to be hoped that her successor will be spared the infliction. Madame De La

Grange is a gem, and Brignoli is the possessor of a sweet and powerful voice.

The whole company is really a splendid

one, and the public are becoming already enthusiastic about them in advance. In connection with the matter of amusement, I might mention that Frank E.

Alken has become the lessee of Woods

Museum, one of the most celebrated places of amusement in the city. When this house opened, some three years ago,

Frank took his position in it as "leading man." Steadily he worked his way onward till he had gained the esteem of the whole general public. He is not much to look at, this same Mr. Alken, any more than was Col. Wood, his predecessor, but he has conducted himself

since he came to the city in a manner that has won for him the admiration of all classes. He played Hamlet, and murdered it. No one thought the worse of him for it. He essayed Othello, and

When he appears in any tight comedy

part he is always first rate, but now that he is proprietor, he may do what he likes.

Well, so much for amusements—never very interesting to parties outside the city. There are other matters which might, perhaps, be so. There are, as the present moment, an enormous number of men and women in Chicago, looking for situations. There are no situations for them. Curious to say, almost all of these come from either England,

Ireland or Scotland. These men bear

golden accounts of what is being done in the West, and think that they have only to get to Chicago in order to make their fortunes. When they come here

they do not make fortunes, but quite the opposite. They have then to either beg, steal, or do something else.

This mistaken idea that Chicago is a real El Dorado, does not in any way

detract from the general and substantial prosperity of the city, which is apparent

on all sides. Thousands of new buildings are being erected, the leading railways are contemplating enormous new depots, and everything available is brought into requisition to accommodate the immense commerce that lends here.

An observer on the South side readily notices the immense improvements made in the dockage capacity of the river in that great commercial centre. The quantities of clay dug from the canal slips have been put to good use in furnishing the millions of brick consumed in the houses of new buildings, and in the growth of Chicago.

So great has been the demand for brick that all sorts of inventive genius

have employed their brains in concoct-

ing machines for multiplying faster than the old time-honored process. As usual, Chicago is in the front. The monitor machine of Mr. A. J. Kniesly combines the two invaluable requisites of great speed and unequalled excellence in quality. Mr. Kniesly is well known as one of our oldest and most successful

brick-makers, and the tests of his machine at his own yard, the fact that it has made no less than $5,000 first class bricks in ten hours,

and the fact that for several years supplied, in the main, the Board of public

Work, is a full guarantee of their durability and excellence.

The "Monitor" is manufactured by

Messrs. Nye & Kniesly, No. 8 Otis

Block, Chicago.

One of its peculiarities is the fact that it detects the presence of a stone or any foreign matter in the clay, and the machine at once stops until the obstruction

is removed. The substitution of brick for nearly every other kind of building

materials make it particularly desirable

that the public should know where the best is to be had, and I think it is indicated in the above address.

Pagellist matter are extraordinary lively. About a week since a prize fight came off between a youth named

Dorney and another a few years his senior named Fitzgerald. Dorney punished his adversary thoroughly, and then lost the fight by doing it too well.

He hit him when he was down, and so was beaten. The town has been since all agog with fancy matters. Dog fighting and man fighting have been constantly on the tapis, and a great battle is coming off on the twentieth of next month

between two noted champions, named respectively Duffy and Bussey. This is to be fought somewhere within fifty miles of Chicago, and, as usual, the police will probably know nothing of it until it is past.

The various churches, heterodox and orthodox, "your doxy and my doxy," as

Sidney Smith says, have all had meetings and conventions and what not.

All have ended with a mutual extending

and receiving of good words and right

hands of fellowship and no proper estimate can be made of the value of these

as antidotes to the brutal encounters we are frequently compelled to hear of.

Died.

OF Consumption, on Friday, Oct. 26, 1867,

at the home of her father, at Taylor's Falls,

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK

General News

On the 26th a new jury panel was ordered, from which a new jury in the Surratt case will be drawn.

It is said that the monthly debt statement for October will show a contraction of four millions in currency.

The receipts for internal revenue for the week ending October 26th were $2,990,322, for the year to date, $47,283,000.

The President has issued a proclamation recommending that the 25th day of November be observed as a day of national thanksgiving.

District Attorney Chandler has notified Charles O'Connor that the Government will be ready to proceed with the trial of Jeff Davis in Richmond, on the 30th of November.

Chief Justice Chase has written a letter to Judge Underwood, saying that he will preside at the trial of Jefferson Davis for the United States Circuit Court at Richmond at the November term.

A special to the New York World says the President desires it to be stated that the report that he would resign in the event of a defeat in the November elections, was made without authority.

Owing to the report that counterfeit seven-thirty bonds are being extensively circulated, large amounts of the second and third series, not due until next year, are being converted into five-twenty at the Treasury Department in Washington.

Five counterfeit compound interest notes have been discovered in the office of the Register of the Treasury in Washington, having passed through the redemption division of the First Auditor's and First Comptroller's offices without being detected.

A Washington telegram of the 26th, says: "One of Jeff Davis' sons has arrived here. The reports are that they will be ready by the 13th of November, in accordance with the letter of Chief Justice Chase. Jeff Davis is very anxious that Chase shall preside."

Foreign Intelligence

The Emperor of Austria was lately visiting the King of Prussia, and is now visiting the King of Italy.

It is reported in Ireland that a Fenian craft has been captured by a British gunboat off the northern coast of Ireland.

The North German Parliament has ratified the new postal treaty with the United States, and has also passed a domestic postal law, to operate throughout the Confederation, which declares the inviolability of private letters.

There has been another gathering of supposed Fenians at New York, and the North of Ireland, have been alarmed by reports of midnight drills and proposed attacks upon militia armories.

The most intelligent Fenians in England are hopeful that the coming European war will give them the "opportunity." All Europe, they say, is paralyzed with the certainty that a general war will break out this autumn, or next spring at farthest.

The Calcutta correspondent of the London Times believes there is trouble brewing in the East. He is convinced that England is adopting a bad policy with regard to Central Asia, and that before long she will have to fight for the safety of the Indian Empire, and so forth.

The Royal Bank of Liverpool has suspended payment, and closed its doors. The liabilities do not exceed £1,000,000 sterling. The directors have made an assessment of five per cent. on the stockholders, and it is reported that the bank will speedily resume business.

A later report says the bank cannot resume business, and that its affairs are in a hopeless condition.

The Fenian trials were in progress at Manchester on the 26th. The trial of Garibaldi was completed, and a verdict of not guilty rendered. Muruglio, who confessed that he shot O'Donnell, was discharged after a short examination, there being no doubt in the mind of the Court that the man was hopelessly insane.

At London, October 26th, intelligence was received from China that the rebels had been fought on the rebel army of invasion and the Tartar force of the Emperor of China. The Imperialists were defeated. The battle took place within thirty miles of Peking, and that was in great danger of falling into the hands of the rebels.

Late dispatches from Rome state that the Party of Action attempted an insurrection in that city, which was quickly repressed. A Florence dispatch of the 25th states that Garibaldi, without regarding the prohibition of the Italian authorities, left Naples and pushed on towards the South, and at last accounts, had reached Rieti, a town in the southern district of Umbria, not far from the Papal frontier and within forty-two miles of Rome.

Later news from Italy is quite startling. Dispatches received in Paris on the evening of the 25th state that Garibaldi has gathered a large force around him, and is ready to pass the Papal frontier. Clivia Vecchia is in a state of siege.

A London dispatch, dated October 25, says: "Dispatches have been received to-day stating that Garibaldi is marching on Rome. His command was divided into two columns, which were taking different directions. The column under Garibaldi, having arrived at Monte Rotondo, a few miles from and in sight of the Holy City. The Papal troops were retreating slowly, falling back before the victorious march of the insurgents, but contesting the ground as they retreated. Garibaldi was again captured, and is now held by the Garibaldians." The Paris Monitor of the 26th officially states that the fleet at Toulon has received positive orders to sail for Clivia Vecchia.

A Paris dispatch of the 26th says the fleet of war steamers left Toulon that morning, under orders to proceed direct for Clivia Vecchia. A Florence dispatch of the same date says the soldiers of King Victor Emanuel refuse to fight against Garibaldi. A bloody fight occurred in Rome on the 25th. The police met with resistance in searching a house, and made a bayonet attack upon the defenders, killing fifteen and wounding thirty-six Garibaldians.

The West

The majority against negro suffrage in Ohio will be about 40,000.

On the 24th, two men were found dead in a steam boiler at the Waterman Iron Works, Sharon, Ohio. They had gone in side to clean it and were suffocated by the heat.

The eastern mail, which left New York on Friday evening, was burned in the railroad accident at Xenia, Ohio, on the 26th.

Two men, named Stewart and Fildes, were run over and instantly killed by the Saturday night's (26th) express west, at Newport, Indiana.

The coal mine of Wick, Ames & Co., Youngstown, Ohio, was set on fire on the night of the 25th, and is still burning with little prospect of the fire being stopped at present.

Official advices from the Western Plains are to the effect that the council of the Government Commissioners and the Indian tribes will probably result in a lasting peace with the Indians.

The Cincinnati Enquirer learns from a private letter from Washington that the President had tendered the position of Commissioner of Internal Revenue to Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana.

D. D. Michaels, publisher of a Daily Market Review in Chicago, did not make his accustomed appearance on "Change on the 26th, and it was discovered that he had been for some time operating heavily with forged warehouse receipts, and had been successively decamped for years unknown. The amount of loss by his swindling operations is not definitely ascertained, but will reach $50,000 or $75,000, divided among several parties.

The East

The 25th of November has been appointed a day of thanksgiving in Maine.

Several new distilleries were seized in New York City, for revenue frauds, on the 25th.

D. D. Michaels, publisher of a Daily Market Review in Chicago, did not make his accustomed appearance on "Change on the 26th, and it was discovered that he had been for some time operating heavily with forged warehouse receipts, and had been successively decamped for years unknown. The amount of loss by his swindling operations is not definitely ascertained, but will reach $50,000 or $75,000, divided among several parties.

The officers of the First National Bank of Kingston, N. Y., have notified the Comptroller of Currency of their intention to put the institution in liquidation. All creditors will be paid, and the business wound up.

Domestic goods seem to be rapidly declining in price in New York. Sprague's prints are selling as low as 10 cents, which is lower than before the war. The mills are losing money, and will probably stop working for a time.

Some villains attempted, on the evening of the 26th, to throw the northern express train for Boston from the track at Thorntons Ferry, on the Concord Railroad, by placing a piece of rail, about five inches long, inserted in the frog at the switch. Fortunately no damage was done.

The Fenians of Massachusetts held a convention in Boston recently. Twenty-five delegates were present, and one delegate, Jeremiah Murphy, of Worcester, was elected permanent President. The State Agent's report represented the organization as increasing rapidly. Patrick Doody, of Boston, was chosen State Center.

The South

There are fourteen colored delegates elected to the Alabama Convention.

The yellow fever still rages at the South, but appears to be abating somewhat.

General Canby has removed Judge A. P. Aldrich of the South Carolina Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions.

It is believed that the United States Government will pass a law withdrawing legal citizens for losses sustained during the war.

The New York Herald of the 26th says General Pope has ordered the 26th regiments to the front, and is collecting the State taxes in Alabama and Florida.

A disastrous conflagration occurred in Memphis on the night of the 26th, by which almost an entire block was destroyed, together with much of the contents. Loss $200,000.

According to returns received and estimates made at the Bureau of Statistics at Washington, the cotton crop this year will amount to 1,764,041 bales of 500 lbs. each. The yield of 1890 was 2,659,086 bales.

Returns from seventy-nine counties, cities and towns of Virginia, received up to the 25th, give a majority of 80,029 in favor of a convention. John H. Griffin has called a formal protest, as a resident and voter of Richmond, against the counting of any vote received at any of the precincts after sunset Wednesday evening, October 26th. The polls closed in Richmond at one o'clock. Thursday morning, A. W. G. Griffin, a member of the House of Representatives, expressed considerable excitement as caused by the fact that two citizens of Richmond, one a prominent tobacco manufacturer, had been ordered by the Vigilance Committee of colored men to leave the city in forty-eight hours.

A Hat Show in Paris

A correspondent of the London Standard writes as follows:

"Last Sunday, (Sept. 29), was celebrated the close of the fair at St. Cloud. The most popular of the shows of the season, undoubtedly has been 'l'homme aux rats,' well known to the inhabitants of the quarter Mont Parnasse, where he has held his headquarters for the last thirteen years."

"The name of this hairy old man of the race is Antoine Leonard. If the former succeeded in breaking in the worst-tempered brute ever created, Leonard in three weeks certainly accomplishes the difficult task of inducing habits of obedience on the biggest rat that ever ran. His favorite scene of action are some cross alleys between the 14th and 15th Arrondissement."

"His sole theater is a sort of perch, which he sticks into the ground, and then he takes his corps de ballet out of his pocket. At his word of command the rats run up and down the perch, hang on three legs, then on two, stand on their heads, and in fact go through a series of gymnastic exercises that would put Blondin himself to blush. His crack act is a rat race, in which he has in his troupe for eleven years; this old fellow not only obeys Leonard, but is personally attached to him. It is a most curious sight to see Leonard put him on the ground, and then watch him, and invariably catches him, however many turns he may take to avoid him. The coal mine of Wick, Ames & Co., Youngstown, Ohio, was set on fire on the night of the 25th, and is still burning with little prospect of the fire being stopped at present.

Official advices from the Western Plains are to the effect that the council of the Government Commissioners and the Indian tribes will probably result in a lasting peace with the Indians.

The Cincinnati Enquirer learns from a private letter from Washington that the President had tendered the position of Commissioner of Internal Revenue to Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana.

D. D. Michaels, publisher of a Daily Market Review in Chicago, did not make his accustomed appearance on "Change on the 26th, and it was discovered that he had been for some time operating heavily with forged warehouse receipts, and had been successively decamped for years unknown. The amount of loss by his swindling operations is not definitely ascertained, but will reach $50,000 or $75,000, divided among several parties.

The officers of the First National Bank of Kingston, N. Y., have notified the Comptroller of Currency of their intention to put the institution in liquidation. All creditors will be paid, and the business wound up.

Domestic goods seem to be rapidly declining in price in New York. Sprague's prints are selling as low as 10 cents, which is lower than before the war. The mills are losing money, and will probably stop working for a time.

Some villains attempted, on the evening of the 26th, to throw the northern express train for Boston from the track at Thorntons Ferry, on the Concord Railroad, by placing a piece of rail, about five inches long, inserted in the frog at the switch. Fortunately no damage was done.

A disastrous conflagration occurred in Memphis on the night of the 26th, by which almost an entire block was destroyed, together with much of the contents. Loss $200,000.

According to returns received and estimates made at the Bureau of Statistics at Washington, the cotton crop this year will amount to 1,764,041 bales of 500 lbs. each. The yield of 1890 was 2,659,086 bales.

Returns from seventy-nine counties, cities and towns of Virginia, received up to the 25th, give a majority of 80,029 in favor of a convention. John H. Griffin has called a formal protest, as a resident and voter of Richmond, against the counting of any vote received at any of the precincts after sunset Wednesday evening, October 26th. The polls closed in Richmond at one o'clock. Thursday morning, A. W. G. A correspondent of the London Standard writes as follows:

"Last Sunday, (Sept. 29), was celebrated the close of the fair at St. Cloud. The most popular of the shows of the season, undoubtedly has been 'l'homme aux rats,' well known to the inhabitants of the quarter Mont Parnasse, where he has held his headquarters for the last thirteen years."

"The name of this hairy old man of the race is Antoine Leonard. If the former succeeded in breaking in the worst-tempered brute ever created, Leonard in three weeks certainly accomplishes the difficult task of inducing habits of obedience on the biggest rat that ever ran. His favorite scene of action are some cross alleys between the 14th and 15th Arrondissement."

"His sole theater is a sort of perch, which he sticks into the ground, and then he takes his corps de ballet out of his pocket. At his word of command the rats run up and down the perch, hang on three legs, then on two, stand on their heads, and in fact go through a series of gymnastic exercises that would put Blondin himself to blush. The situation is elevated and healthy. No pains will be spared to make guests comfortable and their stay enjoyable.

Dust—Soldiers' Fair—The Great Exhibition and Fire—Grain Shipments—Palace Cases.

November 19 1867.

Dust, and very frequently ashes, are standard components of Chicago atmosphere during the present dry weather. They are not altogether pleasant for inhalation, but can be tolerated when the weather is so glorious as now. For several days the sky has been almost unclouded, and a true Indian summer has prevailed. One disastrous result of this was, that the great shower of meteors on Wednesday night was a tame affair, the bright moonlight detracting most materially from the expected brilliancy. A temporary disappointment to sightseers, who now regret absence from bed at unseasonable hours, can be overlooked without difficulty, and the verdict of "nobody hurt" is universal.

For weeks past, elaborate preparations have been made in anticipation of the great Soldiers' Fair, which opened on Wednesday evening, the 13th, at Wabash Avenue Rink. Chicago has always been noted for liberality and loyalty, and hence the Fair is sure to be a success financially. It has been greatly crowded each evening, and the industrious amateur clerks are doing a large as well as benevolent business. The different churches have been active, and a large amount in subscriptions was raised by them and the various committees before the regular opening. It is very confidently hoped that the proceeds will reach twenty-five thousand dollars—a very handsome sum in aid to clothing and feeding the helpless widows and orphans of those who fell in their country's service. The Fair has afforded different business houses an opportunity to be generous, and they have very generally improved it. Among the articles, I notice a fine platform scale, of the celebrated Howe patent, presented by the agent, Mr. J. T. Whipple, Nos. 199 and 201 Randolph street.

The gift is not only valuable but appropriate. The Howe Army Scale was exclusively used by the Government during the war, and is universally recognized as the best. These scales have taken more first-class premiums than all others during the last ten years, among which are seen at the Vermont State Fair since 1857, at which time they met with most vigorous competition. They also secured the first medal for Hay, Coal and Portable Scale, exhibited at the great Paris Exposition.

Another explosion and a terrific fire have afforded gossip for homesteaders and material for contemplation by the serious. The first report from the explosion brought the shocking rumor that eight human beings were buried in the ruins. Not eight but one, as subsequent explorations proved. This style of exaggeration almost hinders the feelings of those who revel in sensations. And why, it may be asked, shall one man's life be sacrificed to stupidity or carelessness. Hundreds of engines are at work in this city as innocent of inspection as the one in the ill-fated mill on Canal street. Only one or two killed, is heralded by the papers. Good people are shocked, and the abuse still goes on. It will only be stopped when the strong arm of the law interposes to save innocent people from the murderous effects of capricious and compelling owners to conform to a safety standard. The entire destruction of the block of old buildings between North wells and North LaSalle streets, fronting the river, although disastrous to insurance companies, is beneficial to Chicago. The risky structures were a disgrace, and their demolition will pave the way for new and appropriate buildings to meet the wants of business necessarily transacted there.

The elevators have been filled with grain during the fall, and the suicidal action of dealers in forcing up the market relatively beyond New York and European, has prevented a large share of the usual shipments. The result is that unless the season of navigation remains open for a considerable time, a large quantity will have to be held over until spring. The banks, however, are aiding in the work of forcing shipment, and it is hoped that the present fine weather will suffice to prevent what would be a positive calamity.

Republicans are preparing to give

Sheridan an ovation on his arrival here next Thursday, and, without doubt, "Fido" will be enthusiastically received by his friends.

The whole West was recently electrified by the sale of a corner lot on Lake and Clark streets, for three thousand dollars a foot. Such was the fact, a fact which demonstrates that as the best business position in the city. One of our most prosperous jewelry, firms Messrs. Morse, Roddin & Hamilton secured a location there a year ago. This, aided by their business energy and experience has placed them in the front rank in their trade. They employ the best workmen and have a splendid stock of watches, jewelry, etc., nothing but first class goods being kept. They pay special attention to manufacturing and repairing jewelry. Already this corner is the favorite place for the best class of city trade, and to any visitor from abroad who wishes to make a purchase of a good watch or a piece of jewelry, or desire repairs, I cannot commend them to a better place than the establishment of this firm.

The Chicago railways are noted for their passenger conveniences, and everyone knows the fame of the Great Central route. A short time since, the Pullman line of Hotel Palace Cars, running over the Michigan Central, Great Western and New York Central Railways, to Rochester, was completed by adding the sixth car, the Viceroy. This is literally a palace, costing over thirty thousand dollars. A passenger for New York is served with meals in these cars, and goes in them without change to Rochester, passing from there to New York by daylight, in a day car of almost equal magnificence. Within a few years we in Chicago, expect through trains of these cars to start from New York, pass over the Suspension Bridge, and cross the continent by the great Union Pacific Railway. People who indulge in such speculations need not be thought chimerical, in view of the last two years' experience.

No BETTER PROOF REQUIRED.—It has not yet been publicly denied that Best Chemical Saleratus made by D. B. De Land & Co., is all that its friends have claimed—that is a pure and wholesome article. This cannot be denied in face of the testimony of chemists and those best qualified to judge. It is much better than Soda.

HASK McCourt returned from below this week with a couple thousand bushels of grain for various parties.

The State Department at Washington is informed that five million dollars' worth of property was destroyed by the tornado on the Rio Grande, of October 8th. Six hundred houses were destroyed, and all the ranches for thirty miles around Matamoros were thrown down. At the mouth of the river scarcely a house is left. All the river steamers were wrecked or disabled except one. Twenty persons were killed, and forty or fifty wounded.

On the 14th, at R. A. Pollard, the historian of Lee and his Lieutenants, was passing in front of the Malby House, Baltimore, he was approached by a son and nephew of Henry A. The anticipated meteoric shower on the morning of the 14th, seems to have been very general throughout the country—much more so than at the same date last year. The display in the vicinity of Chicago is represented as very brilliant, notwithstanding the fact that it was modified by a full moon shining in cloudless splendor. The Superintendent of the Chicago Observatory reports that about 4,000 meteors were seen during the night, but that the number would have amounted to 30,000 if the night had been clear and moonless. In other parts of the Union the display was even more brilliant.

THE FRUIT LANDS OF THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD.

A Brief Resume of the Fruit Business of that Line During the Past Season.

The lands lying either side the Main Line and Chicago Branch of the Illinois Central Railroad, and which have been offered for sale by the wise policy of the company at rates almost nominal—are among the richest, most prolific and profitable in the world. They embrace every variety of climate and soil, and are admirably adapted not only to the growth of cereals and vegetables, but the culture and ripening to rare perfection of the finest and most luscious fruits.

The market of St. Paul, have been abundantly supplied during the past summer, from the great fruit belt extending along the Illinois Central south of the point where its line is crossed by the Ohio & Mississippi. Of the present magnitude and future expansion of the fruit traffic of Illinois (which is yet comparatively in its infancy) we can best judge from the results already attained.

As an experiment, provided a special train for the prompt transportation of fruits, and the financial returns to the company all, and more even, than was anticipated. The Fruit Train commenced running early in June, at about passenger speed, leaving Jonesboro, Ill., at eight o'clock, and arriving in Chicago at five o'clock the next morning. It stopped only at meeting points, and at the stations, to receive shipments of fruit at day stations. This early arrival enabled consignors to reach by express and various rail lines other markets also, by the early morning trains running out of Chicago. The rates of freight were extremely moderate. At the height of the season, were remunerative to the company. During the month of June the traffic was estimated entirely to the Illinois Central, to the 20th of June (about twenty days) there were shipped to Chicago from 18 stations between Chicago and St. Louis, 8,841 boxes of berries of the finest flavor, and in excellent condition.

The special Fruit Train was discontinued June 20th, and put on again July 2nd. From that date to September 20th, inclusive (excluding Sundays), it brought to Chicago alone, 25,181 boxes of fruit, 6,660 cases of blackberries, raspberries and other fruits, and 6,004 boxes of vegetables—weighing 6,084,180 pounds and 99,020 boxes of peaches, 508 boxes of other fruit, and 821 boxes of other produce, weighing in all 2,085,020 pounds. The Fruit Train covered running September 20th. These results were on the Illinois Central. These results were on the Illinois Central. These results were on the Illinois Central.

Local and Miscellaneous

SATURDAY, November 30 1867.

The young people have organized a dancing club to meet once in two weeks.

There is a good opening here for a wood-sawing machine. It would prove a profitable spec. for the owners and be a great accommodation.

FRANK J. MEADE has bought the Shakopee Spectator and is running it in lively style.

J. FLETCHER WILLIAMS, local of the Pioneer, is soon to publish a history of St. Paul.

J. B. GUTCHER of St. Cloud, who had been mining in Montana for two years without making a cent recently struck a "pocket" took out $60,000 worth of gold, and arrived in St. Paul on Wednesday, on his way home.

SKATING.—Youngsters are already having rare sport on the lakes in this vicinity scaled up by frosty nights sufficiently to sustain their little bodies. Children of larger growth will ere long patronize this noble amusement, gaining rosy cheeks' brighter eyes and a better life and vitality.

The habit of drunkenness is to a man what filth is to a dwelling—not only disgraceful in itself, but the nest in which all other vices hide and dwell. The temptations which men when sober hold in check, take full possession of them when intoxication throws open all the avenues of entrance and the ungilded soul is seduced to actions which in calmer hours it abhors.

WAREHOUSING.—The warehouse in charge of Ed. H. Folson, is crowded with grain and provision for the lumbermen. It is shipped from below by steamboat, a great economy—as the cost of hauling it with teams in the winter is about double the cost of boat transportation.

Partitions are posted signed by property owners in that vicinity, for a new road from the vicinity of the Chicago Mill to intersect the Stillwater road near its junction with the Chicago Lake road. Such a road must be a great accommodation to parties living on or near the school section.

Most of the men folks have gone to the pines and the girls are discouraged; the wives, widows for the winter, and the old maids clear discouraged. Such is life in a lumbering community—"hard on women and oxen."

RAIN.—On Saturday and Sunday the low hung clouds dropped their garnered fullness down, in a complete "drizzle-drozzle."

Since then, the clear resplendent, glory of Indian summer, has crowded winter into the background. Let 'er crowd!

Later! John, but the weather caught cold yesterday. Clear and pleasant, yet the mercury went down into the basement story and Capt. J. Fro. assumed command of lakes and rivers.

GRIST MILLS.—As farms open up and more acres are laid under the plow, grist mills follow in the wake. At Sunrise, John G. Mold's grist mill is in running order with two sets of burrs. The other grist mill at that place is being thoroughly repaired to do the best of work. It is a disgrace to our enterprise that, Taylors Falls, is without any grist mill. Thousands of dollars in trade are lost to our merchants every season from this fact alone. Why don't they wake up?

ENCOURAGEMENT.—Very large stocks of goods were placed in store by our merchants this fall and since their receipt, sales have been brisk. The balance sheets already give an encouraging exhibit after the dull days of last summer. As soon as returns from the crops jingled in the farmers' pockets, business lived up and by the holidays the stores will begin to display an array of empty shelves. Look over our advertising columns for the live business houses and be sure and go to these for bargains.

The correspondent of the Daily Wisconsin in writing up St. Croix Falls, said their water power and that of Lowell was as much alike "as a cart wheel and a dose of salts." The scribbler then sent five hundred copies at five cents apiece to the supervisors for distribution. The papers are yet uncalled for.

The letter from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, which we published this week, cannot fail to be of interest to lumbermen. The gentlemen in charge of the Land Office at St. Croix mean to perform their duty and keep watch and ward over that portion of Uncle Sam's dominions entrusted to them.

IMPORTANT TO LUMBERMEN.

Letter from the General Land Office.

Department of the Interior,
General Land Office, October 18th, 1867.

Register and Receiver, Falls St. Croix, Wis.

Referring to your letter of the 21 inst. in relation to timber upon the reserved old numbered Sections of the lands granted by act of Congress of May 5th 1864 in connection with the act of June 31, 1856, to aid in the construction of Railroads in Wisconsin. I have to instruct you, that it is held by this Office and sustained by the Secretary of the Interior that the Railroad companies have no right to cut and dispose of the timber upon such reserved Sections for speculation, until title thereto shall have passed by the issuing of patents under the provisions of the 7th Section of said act of 1864 upon a showing made that "twenty consecutive miles of the railroads" for which the lands are claimed, have been completed and you will therefore, until such portions are completed, when patents will be issued, see that the timber upon said lands is protected from waste and spoliation, under the instructions which you have received as the special guardians of this branch of the public interest. Very Respectfully,
Jos. S. Wilson,
Commissioner.

TORTUOUS OF Stillwater has his new store building completed and now occupies it. There may be found a general assortment of Iron and Tin ware, and skillful workers in metals, also, provisions of all sorts. This establishment is one of the most complete of its kind in the Valley, and is an ornament to the thriving town where it is located.

"Snow BOUND."—By the Rev. J. Q. Hall, at his residence, in this place, on Wednesday the 27th inst., the Rev. B. A. Kemp to Miss Sarah Snow. "Much joy" is our worst wish. Keep an eye to the future for little snow-equals.

The absurd rumor that had already gained some credence to the effect that the prospectors of the new grist Mill at this place had failed, is without foundation. Work will be commenced in February.

THANKSGIVING.—Rev. W. D. Bennett delivered a sermon in the morning, and lovers of dancing attended the hop in the evening.

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, October 18th, 1867.

Referring to your letter of the 21 inst. in relation to timber upon the reserved old numbered Sections of the lands granted by act of Congress of May 5th 1864 in connection with the act of June 31, 1856, to aid in the construction of Railroads in Wisconsin. I have to instruct you, that it is held by this Office and sustained by the Secretary of the Interior that the Railroad companies have no right to cut and dispose of the timber upon such reserved Sections for speculation, until title thereto shall have passed by the issuing of patents under the provisions of the 7th Section of said act of 1864 upon a showing made that "twenty consecutive miles of the railroad" for which the lands are claimed, have been completed and you will therefore, until such portions are completed, when patents will be issued, see that the timber upon said lands is protected from waste and spoliation, under the instructions which you have received as the special guardians of this branch of the public interest. Very Respectfully, Jos. S. Wilson, Commissioner.

TORTUOUS of Stillwater has his new store building completed and now occupies it. There may be found a general assortment of Iron and Tin ware, and skillful workers in metals, also, provisions of all sorts. This establishment is one of the most complete of its kind in the Valley, and is an ornament to the thriving town where it is located.

"Snow BOUND."—By the Rev. J. Q. Hall, at his residence, in this place, on Wednesday the 27th inst., the Rev. B. A. Kemp to Miss Sarah Snow. "Much joy" is our worst wish. Keep an eye to the future for little snow-equals.

The absurd rumor that had already gained some credence to the effect that the prospectors of the new grist mill at this place had failed, is without foundation. Work will be commenced in February.

THANKSGIVING.—Rev. W. D. Bennett delivered a sermon in the morning, and lovers of dancing attended the hop in the evening.

HOTEL AT CHICAGO CITY.

MRS. H. PORTER, Prop.

This hotel having been recently refitted and refurnished, I would call the attention of

Travelers, Invalids and Tourists,

As a place for summer resort this vicinity is unequalled in the North-West. Good hotels are kept on the lakes, which abound in fish, while all kinds of game is plenty in the surrounding woods. The situation is elevated and healthy. No pains will be spared to make guests comfortable and their stay enjoyable.
